BAPUJI HIGHER PRIMARY ENGLISH SCHOOL,

MCC B BLOCK, DAVANGERE – 04

DAY & DATE: 5th July 2023

NAME OF THE EVENT: Fabric Painting and Embroidery

OBJECTIVE:

- Promoting creativity and artistic expression: A competition could be designed around a specific theme, such as nature, animals, or mythology. This would encourage students to be creative and to come up with original designs.
- Developing fine motor skills: A competition could require students to use different embroidery stitches. This would help them to develop their fine motor skills and to learn about different embroidery techniques.
- Teaching about different cultures and traditions: A competition could focus on embroidery from a particular culture or region. This would help students to learn about the history and significance of embroidery in that culture.
- Building confidence and self-esteem: A competition could be structured so that all students have a chance to win. This would help to build their confidence and self-esteem, regardless of their skill level.
- Promoting teamwork and collaboration: A competition could be team-based. This would require students to work together and to collaborate with each other in order to create a successful piece of embroidery.
- To encourage creativity and self-expression. Fabric painting is a great way for people of all ages to express their creativity and individuality. A competition can provide a fun and challenging opportunity for participants to let their imaginations run wild.
- To teach new skills. Even if participants are already experienced with fabric painting, a competition can be a great way to learn new techniques and explore new styles. The competition can also provide a forum for participants to share their knowledge and expertise with others.
- To promote art appreciation. A fabric painting competition can help to raise awareness of the art of fabric painting and its many possibilities. The competition can also be a way to showcase the work of talented artists and inspire others to take up the craft.
- To have fun! A fabric painting competition should be a fun and enjoyable experience for all involved. The competition should be a chance for participants to relax, be creative, and express themselves.

OUTCOMES:

- Attention to detail: Embroidery requires a great deal of attention to detail. Students who participate in competitions will learn to focus on the small details, which can help them in other areas of their lives.
- Patience: Embroidery can be a slow and painstaking process. Students who participate in competitions will learn to be patient and persistent, which are valuable qualities in any field.
- Resilience: Not every embroidery project will turn out perfectly. Students who participate in competitions will learn to deal with setbacks and disappointments, and they will come out stronger on the other side.

PARTICIPANTS: 6 to 10 Boys and Girls

GUEST SPEECH: NIL

DESCRIPTION OF THE EVENT:

The fabric painting competition is an annual event held at BHPE School to showcase the creative talents of our students. This year, the competition is open to students in grades 6-8.

DAY & DATE: 5th July 2023

NAME OF THE EVENT: Spot Painting

OBJECTIVE:

- To encourage creativity and artistic expression. Spot painting competitions provide a unique opportunity for participants to let their imaginations run wild. They can choose any subject matter they want, and they have a limited amount of time to complete their work. This can be a great way to challenge participants' creativity and see what they can come up with.
- To provide a platform for young artists to showcase their talent. Spot painting competitions can be a great way for young artists to get exposure and recognition for their work. They can compete against other talented artists from their community, and they have the chance to win prizes and awards. This can be a great boost to their confidence and motivation, and it can help them to develop their artistic skills.
- To raise awareness of the arts. Spot painting competitions can help to raise awareness of the arts in the community. They can attract people who are not normally interested in art, and they can show them the value of creativity and self-expression. This can help to create a more supportive environment for the arts, and it can encourage more people to participate in artistic activities.

OUTCOMES:

- Motivating young artists to develop their creative skills. By providing a platform for young artists to showcase their work and receive feedback from judges, spot painting competitions can help to motivate them to continue developing their skills.
- Exposing young artists to contemporary talent in the field. By seeing the work of other artists, young artists can gain new insights into different techniques and styles. This can help them to expand their own artistic horizons.
- Giving young artists the opportunity to win prizes and recognition. Prizes and recognition can be a great way to boost the confidence of young artists and encourage them to continue pursuing their passion.
- Creating a sense of community among young artists. Spot painting competitions can provide a forum for young artists to meet each other, share their work, and learn from each other. This can help to create a sense of community among young artists and foster a love of art.

PARTICIPANTS: 6 to 10 Boys and Girls

GUEST SPEECH: NIL

DESCRIPTION OF THE EVENT: The spot painting art competition was a fun and creative event that gave students the opportunity to express themselves through art.
